Allonn has handled numerous appeals and writ petitions before various State District Courts of Appeal, Federal Circuit Courts of Appeals, the California Supreme Court and the United States Supreme Court.

He is frequently invited to lecture and comment on issues of technology, civil procedure, and intellectual property. Allonn is also an invited guest lecturer for Santa Clara University's School of Law on issues of Civil Procedure, Trial, and Appellate Practice.

In 2016, Allonn Levy received Santa Clara University School of Law's inaugural Diversity Award, for his projects seeking to engage traditionally underrepresented groups in the legal profession. He has also served as the Master of Ceremonies for the School's Diversity Gala, an annual event that the firm regularly supports. He is a past recipient of California Lawyer's prestigious "Lawyer of the Year" award and was twice acknowledged as one of the top 40 Silicon Valley lawyers under 40.

Experience

- After multi-week trial, secured a money judgment for more than six million dollars against a large property ownership group, together with declaratory relief securing real property rights for several family members in a multi-generational real property and fraud dispute. Concurrently obtained a fully defense judgment on all monetary and equitable cross-claims.
- Following Phase I of a multi-week trial involving complex business, shareholder, and trust issues, obtained a complete "defense" on a litany of substantive claims seeking over $400 million in damages then successfully precluded Phase II of the trial on various fraud theories based upon findings made in the Phase I trial. The combined findings of Phase I and Phase II of the trials resulted in a complete defense judgment in favor of seven individuals and one corporation.
- Obtained a stipulated judgment of dismissal of all claims related to a copyright action involving complex GPL "open-source" issues and novel unfair competition theories involving two multi-national competitors.
- Obtained a successful negotiated resolution of two related cases involving shareholder derivative and direct action claims of breaches of fiduciary duty, corporate mismanagement, trademark infringement, and conversion in a complex dispute involving a number of businesses, agricultural properties, and vineyards.
- Obtained a $5.4 million dollar judgment against multiple out-of-state defendants flowing out of a complex scheme of business fraud. Then prevailed on a short-cause court trial in Georgia domesticating that judgment to pursue the debtor there and defeating an array of counterclaims.
- Obtained partial summary judgment in favor of a regional software manufacturer on copyright and breach of contract claims brought in the Northern District Court of California. The same motion also successfully secured a judgment of complete dismissal of all counter-claims brought against the software manufacturer.
- Led successful $19 million claim objection trial before the United States Bankruptcy Court in the Southern District of Florida, involving complex issues of California Civil Procedure, indemnity, and business tort issues.
- Won $14.8 million verdict for client in a large, complex business fraud case in Napa County, one of the largest verdicts ever to come out of that Court.
- Won $5.8 million jury verdict for client including a finding of no liability on $12 million in cross-claims.
- Prevailed in a multi-million dollar court-ordered arbitration involving a complex business dispute relating to the dissolution of a business.
- Completed a 40 day, multi-million dollar, jury trial involving International Copyright claims, Trade Secrets and Business Torts.
- Involved in prosecuting and defending Copyright and DMCA claims relating to database copyright protection
- Successfully extracted client from a lengthy multi-party ITC investigation involving multiple claims of patent infringement while achieving a global resolution including the dismissal of pending patent infringement claims in the District Court of Texas.
- Retained by multiple U.S. and European groups and business leaders to file an amicus curiae brief before the United States Supreme Court in the precedent-setting patent case, Bilski v. Kappos.

hopkins carley

- Worked on the very first trial to challenge the Digital Millennium Copyright Act in New York as well as two precedent-setting cases in California involving cyber-jurisdiction and the intersection of First Amendment and trade secret rights.
